MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Jan Lodol, NSC Staff

SUBJECT: Requested Publications on Soviet Strategic Affairs and Bureaucratic Politics

Jan

1. In the accompanying package, you will find three of the papers we offered during our luncheon last week. They are:

- The Major Soviet Missile Design Entities
- The Formation of the Soviet Strategic Rocket Forces: A Study of Interservice Rivalries
- D. F. Ustinov and the Soviet Defense Industry

The Ustinov study is a lengthy one, and I recommend that you focus on the "Principal Findings" and Chapters III and IV. It is a first class study and I believe you will find it of interest.

2. The two other reports mentioned in our conversation were sent to the NSC staff at the time of publication and should be available to you. They are:

- SALT and the 1972 Moscow Summit: Some Insights Into the Soviet Policymaking Process
- The SS-9 ICBM Program: Organizational Aspects of Soviet Decision-making

The latter study is nearly three years old and may not be readily accessible in your files. If so, we can make arrangements to loan you a copy.
